Indirect impacts are jobs, labor income, and economic output (the value of goods and services) produced at firms providing goods and services to Georgia’s libraries including office supplies, building maintenance, and library resources.

Induced economic impacts are jobs, labor income, and economic output resulting from household spending by employees of the libraries and by persons in the indirect jobs supported by library operations.
HOW THE GWINNETT COUNTY LIBRARY SYSTEM IS FUNDED 2018

TOTAL $20,269,612

- $18 million
  Local Government and Other Local Revenue

- $1.6 million
  State Grants and Other State Support

- $165,217
  Federal

- $499,941
  Capital Projects, Facilities, and Technology*

*Estimated average annual share of GPLS spending.

Each $1.00 of inputs produces $4.26 in services and economic impacts.
Since 1927, the Carl Vinson Institute of Government has been an integral part of the University of Georgia. A public service and outreach unit of the university, the Institute of Government is the largest and most comprehensive university-based organization serving governments in the United States through research services, customized assistance, training and development, and the application of technology.