

Georgia's public libraries

■ Strengthening partnerships

Libraries are vital to the health and well-being of our state. Libraries are strong partners in all that Georgia does, from strengthening early literacy to building a strong economy.

■ Supporting early literacy

Libraries empower children to become strong readers and lifelong learners. Libraries support families and children from birth to age 5, a critical time in the development of language and literacy.

■ Building community spaces

By creating new spaces and revitalizing existing ones, libraries foster lifelong learning, creativity, and collaboration to meet the unique and evolving needs of their communities.

■ Expanding access to technology

By expanding access to technology, public libraries are a vital resource for individuals and families, promoting digital literacy and providing pathways to opportunity.

■ Serving all stages of life

Your free Georgia public library card is the key to discovering and learning at your library, online, and at great places around the state. Your public library has free, easy-to-use resources for all ages.

■ Improving lives

Libraries change lives, and we are working together to create a more educated state. We encourage you to support a strong Georgia by supporting libraries.
